

IMPROVED RECREATION SITE FIRE PIT

- Fire Pit will be buried 12 to 15 inches below the ground level, with a (concrete, sand or mineral soil base)-
- There will be a screen over the top of the fire pit with openings no greater than one inch.
- There will be a steel ring around the sides of the fire pit
- There will be a 15-foot clearance (at least) around the fire pit. (This clearance will be mineral soil, concrete, brick or sand). – Manicured lawn grass (well kept) may be accepted.
- There will be no overhanging branches or any other vegetation in the 15ft clearance, around the fire pit
- Responsible party will stay with the fire at all times with water and hand tools to prevent spread
- Fires in any other type of fire pits will be considered illegal and are punishable with a Class B Misdemeanor ($1,000 fine and up to 60 days in Jail)
- Fires will be completely extinguished before leaving the fire pit area
- (BURN AT YOUR OWN RISK) If fire escapes the fire pit and resources are called to suppress the fire. Responsible party will be held liable for all costs to put out the fire!
- Propane fires are permitted, however charcoal fires are not permitted.

BE SAFE & HAVE FUN

WASATCH COUNTY FIRE WARDEN